

Core Advocacy and Restraining Order Training

When: September 24-26, 2013

Where: Madison

Core Advocacy is a two-day training that addresses advocacy as a philosophical approach and a set of skills and activities that flows from that philosophy. We will explore concrete ways for advocates to connect with/support survivors, and navigate systems survivors often access.

Restraining Order Training is a one-day interactive training that is highly recommended for any advocate who will assist individuals to obtain restraining orders. Register now! Click on Details.

Core Advocacy is a two-day training that addresses advocacy as a philosophical approach and a set of skills and activities that flows from that philosophy. We will explore concrete ways for advocates to connect with/support survivors, and navigate systems survivors often access.

Restraining Order Training is a one-day interactive training that is highly recommended for any advocate who will assist individuals to obtain restraining orders.

For more details and a link to registration, open Announcement below.

Go directly to online registration HERE .

 Announcement-CA-RO-Sept 2013.pdf

Source URL (retrieved on 03/02/2015 - 10:32am): <http://www.wcadv.org/content/events/core-advocacy-and-restraining-order-training-1>