

Mondays with Morgan: Legal Issues for Mixed Families - How immigration status complicates system response

When: July 21, 2014 from 1-2 PM

Where: At your desk

Join Morgan Young for this month's topic: Legal Issues for Mixed Families - How immigration status complicates system response. This session will discuss common complications for mixed status immigrant families, including custody and placement and public benefits. Time will be reserved at the end of the hour for participants to ask questions about this topic--or any legal topic--of concern to victim advocates. See Details to register.

Join Morgan Young for this month's topic: Legal Issues for Mixed Families - How immigration status complicates system response. This session will discuss common complications for mixed status immigrant families, including custody and placement and public benefits. Time will be reserved at the end of the hour for participants to ask questions about this topic--or any legal topic--of concern to victim advocates. (The original date of this event was changed to July 21.

This webinar is part of a monthly series for staff of domestic violence programs, in which Tess Meuer or Morgan Young will highlight a current legal issue or trend for advocates around the state.

To register, click HERE .

Source URL (retrieved on 01/25/2015 - 8:21pm): <http://www.wcadv.org/content/events/mondays-morgan-legal-technical-assistance-4>